Hello once again and welcome to Issue 6 of Bonzo's Scrap Yard.

10th FRAME from Ocean is a Bunlock job.

ANGLE BALL from M.A.D. goes with Option 4.

CYBERWORLD (or PARANDIA COMPLEX — early versions) from Magic Bytes is an Option 1 transfer but you'll have to rename the file names as you go as the file names default to *.BAS or *.BIN on transfer.

DRAGON NINJA from Imagine was previously listed as a No-Go but I'm told the main file can be grabbed with Blitz 5.

GUARDIAN II from Hi-Tec is zapped with Option 1.

LAZER TAG from GO! goes (no pun intended) with Option 10B (previously less specifically listed as option 10).

OSPREY from Bourne Educational is reported as a Hack Pack transfer. I'm told the files might go with Option 1 but they need a bit of jiggling about with filenames etc to get the thing to run.

RENEGADE from Imagine is listed as Blitz Detect but actually goes with BLITZNU.

O.K. that's the A-Z listed but for those of you that prefer it this way here's a brief summary in Option order.

OPTION 1 : GUARDIAN II [Hi-Tec]

CYBERWORLD [Magic Bytes]

OPTION 4 : ANGLE BALL [M.A.D.]

OPTION 10B : LAZER TAG [GO!]

BUNLOCK : 10TH FRAME [Ocean]

HACK PACK : OSPREY [Bourne Educational]

BLITZ 5 : DRAGON NINJA - Main File Only [Imagine]

BLITZNU : RENEGADE - Main File Only [Imagine]

And that, as they say, is that. Our thanks go to Dave Caleno and Neil Frater for supplying all the above information, thanks lads.

THE RETURN OF THE AA TAPE TRANFER BIT

I've had one or two people enquire about the absence of the AA Covertape 'stand alone' type-in routines from the last two issues of the Scrap Yard. There are a couple of good reasons for this and they're simply because [AI I gave up buying AA at the beginning of the year as I felt it was a waste of money and therefore couldn't have a go at the more recent tapes myself and [BI the main source for the routines, Barry Snell's column in CPC DOMAIN, was lost when the discrine folded.

But now [fanfare of trumpets] to our rescue comes FRANK RYAN, all the way from sunny Northumberland [home of the best supported football club in the history of Christendom - Newcastle United to you] with some more short type-ins to do the business.

Frank says that he's just manipulated the original routines a bit and that he's not trying to steal the original authors glory or whatever.

As I don't have the tapes or mag's in question myself I can't tell you which tape or issue number they're from but I'm sure if you have them you can work that one out yourselves.

It should be fairly apparent that all the routines are very similar. So a special THANKS to FRANK RYAN for his endeavours.

The preceding has been what could loosely be termed 'the good news' now for the bad stuff ///////////////

All that might have been overlooked if the prime reason for closing the newsletter down hadn't occurred, and that was that my last 6128 keyboard went 'down' and despite DIY attempts at chip swapping in order to get up and running again I've had no luck. Faced with a 40 pounds or so repair bill I've reluctantly decided that I can't really justify the expense.

It is a shame I know, as I've always been proud of the CPC's capabilities and always found it very friendly to use and perhaps more importantly I've gained lots of friends through using it.

Those of you that know me a little will be aware that I've been using an Atari ST for quite a while now and given the price of secondhand ST's the CPC will have to remain unrepaired whilst I consider buying an additional ST and placing all my eggs in the Atari basket.

For the time being at least I'm still hanging in the CPC scene, but I'm lingering on the goodwill of a mate who has kindly lent me his 6128 keyboard while I get all my loose ends sorted out. So if you've a query or something you can still get in touch and I'll do my best until such time as my mate, Big Hal [/], comes around threatening me !!!!!!!!!!!

There will be at least one more issue of the Scrap Yard, in fact seems no real reason why I can't continue to compile the newsletter regardless of whether I'm CPCless or not, but somehow it doesn't seem quite right.

Anyway, can I ask you to please send me anything you might think will be of interest, Bonzo related or otherwise.

This issue has been a little late coming out and whilst the main reason for this was given above I still hope you all accept my apologies. I'm not sure when the next issue will be out February deadline seems to be about right, so I'll be aiming for that.

Before finishing off can I just give a plug to another Newsletter about called CONTACT. It's compiled by Dave Muggeridge [address below! and contains various bits and pieces of interest, is a good 'friendly' read and costs the pricely sum of 30p (yes, just 30p).

My thanks go to those that helped in compiling the info', especially Dave Caleno, Neil Frater, Frank Ryan and not forgetting Mr Printout himself NIGEL MELLS .

A final reminder that to recieve the next issue of Bonzo's Scrap Yard you should send a stamped, self addressed envelope PLUS one extra first class stamp Ewhich has just gone up to 25pl.
