The image shows a blue and yellow box for the 'Cheetah Bug' video game. The box is shown from a three-quarter perspective, highlighting the front and side panels. The side panel features the text 'CHEETAH THE BUG' in large, stylized yellow letters. The front panel has a graphic of the game's controller, which is a grey, futuristic-looking device with a central joystick and several buttons. The controller is shown in a dynamic, angled position. The background of the front panel is dark blue with some lighter blue and yellow accents. The top of the box is yellow with the word 'BUG' in large, bold, black letters. The bottom of the box is blue with some text and a small logo.
