A close-up photograph of a white plastic toy vehicle base. The base is square-shaped with rounded corners and features a prominent red ring around a central opening. Several small, light-colored protrusions are visible around the base of this opening. A black rectangular label is affixed to the front of the base, containing the text "CHEETAH ANNIHILATOR" in a white, stylized, outlined font. The toy is resting on a light-colored, textured surface, possibly a floor or table.
