THE GAME

Many years ago, when home computers had no keyboards, black and white displays and went "Blip!" there was a game. One or two players were known to sit in front of their tellys for hours on end; meals sat uneaten and beds lay unslept in. Well, now it's 1988 and you can enjoy those days once more, revitalised with new graphics, sound and colour, and a couple of games you've never seen - Four-Bat Blip, and Astroblip-eroids...
